PROCESS OF ONLINE ADMISSION

1. Based on the merit formula, as stipulated by the NBU a merit list in total for all students will be prepared on the basis of online application received by the college.

$$\text{The Merit formula for Honours Programme Courses Shall be } \frac{T}{4}$$

Where T= marks obtained in English + marks obtained in the subject opted for Honours + best marks of two other subjects [excluding EVS and the subject opted for Honours & English].

If the student does not have the specific subject in his/her previous course, the procedure for Merit calculation will be as follows:

$$\text{Merit} = [\text{Marks obtained in English} + \text{Marks in three other best of subjects excluding EVS}] / 4$$

Admission to all Programme courses will also be based strictly on merit. Merit shall be calculated as per the following norms:

$$\text{Merit} = [\text{Marks obtained in English} + \text{Marks in three other best of subjects excluding EVS}] / 4$$

2. The merit list of all eligible students shall be available on the college website. This merit list will be prepared considering all students as General category students and also separate merit list for reserved category students. Students can verify their positions in the merit list by logging into the college app.
3. Admissions to all Honours Programme / Programme Courses shall take place by publication of Merit List of eligible students.
4. Students can take admission to a particular course at the first instance, and can very well change the option so exercised at a later stage based on score and position in the merit list, but if there is a difference in fees that has to be first paid by the students.
5. Mere submission of application form does not guarantee admission to the college.
6. Date of Provisional Merit List will be published on 26/08/2021.
7. For any error committed by the students in filling up of application form / upload of documents, edit facility is available till payment of registration fees, after that such students has to contact the college for any necessary correction before publication of final merit list. No claim whatsoever will be entertained thereafter.
8. If at the time of final verification before the classes begins if it is found that the student has suppressed facts or submitted false documents his admission to the college shall stand cancelled.
